NEGRO HANGED ON SMITH'S ISLAND Sheriff Completely Outwitted Mob That Threatened to Burn

Man at Stake. MADE CONFESSION

Crime Created Unprecedented Excitement Throughout Eastern Counties of Maryland.

(By Associated Press.)

CRISFIELD, MD., July 26.—William Lee, the colored youth who was sentenced to death in Baltimore three weeks ago for assaulting two women in Somerset county on June 10th, last, and who had been threatened with lynching, was hanged by Sheriff Brown to-day on Smith's Island, in the presence of his deputies and a few witnesses. The mob, that had threatened to burn Lee at the stake, was completely outwitted by the sheriff. Lee's crime created unprecedented excitement throughout the eastern counties of Maryland, and for weeks the popular fury was such that Governor Warfield deemed it prudent to have him confined in the Baltimore city jall, as a protection from mob violence. As a further precaution, though it was necessary to carry out the sentence of the law in Somerset county, the scene of the crime, the exact place of execution was kept secret, even from those who were to accompany the sheriff and cultorit as deputies and witnesses. were to accompany the sheri prit as deputies and witnesse Whisked Away on Steamer. Whisked Away on Steamer.

To carry out this purpose, Sheriff Brown appeared in Baltimore yesterday afternoon late, placed his prisoner aboard a steamer of the Maryland Oyster Navy, and immediately salled flown the bay. He took with him a gallows, which had been borrowed from Baltimore county, and also a coffin, and was prepared to hang Lee on the deck of the vesser after reaching the waters of Somerset county, should there be any signs of a mob on shore.

At an early hour this morning the mob on shore.

At an early hour this morning the steamer appeared off Smith's Island, the prisoner was speedily taken ashore, and the scaffold quickly erected by a carpenter, who had been brought from Baitmore for that purpose. The culprit; accompanied by his spiritual adviser, was led up the scaffold, the noose was adjusted, and the execution was quickly over.

Lee confessed his guilt,

DAUGHTER IS BORN TO STELLA BRENNAN

Woman Serving Life Sentence for Murder Becomes a Mother, May Be Pardoned.

May Be Pardoned.

(By Associated Press.)

STILLWATER. MICH., July 26.—A daughter was born to-day to Mrs. Stella Brennan in the State prison at Stillwater, where she is serving a life sentence for the murder of her step-children in Minneapolis about a year ago. The child will be sent to Mrs. Brennan's mother, who lives in Michigan.

Mrs. Brennan committed on November 4, 1905, the crime for which she was sentenced to prison for life. Her husband, James Brennan, stood by his wife during her trial. An effort was made to secure an acquittal on the ground that Mrs. Brennan was not responsible for her acts, owing to her physical condition. The fact that Mrs. Brennan expected to become a mother, it is said, influenced the jury to bring in a verdict of murder in the second degree, in order that she might thus avoid being hanged.

Governor Johnson spoke very strongly when he learned to-day that the child had been born in prison, and intimated that Mrs. Brennan's case might come before the pardon board.

Forget thee! Oh, when life shall cease To thrill this heart of mine; But not till then can I forget One look or tone of thine. Oh, no! It mingles with the sound Of everything I hear, And, think ye I can forget He I loved so dear? Forget thee? It is a bitter word— I would it be unsald; Forgetfulness is not with life, But with the silent dead. I, then, may cease to think of thee, As earthly mortals do. But ohl we'll meet, I trust, in Heaven, with hearts unchanged and true.

HIS BROTHER, CHARLES.
